

Cemetery Report

At present all burials have been completed with no problems arising.

All grass cutting is well in progress and the cemetery is looking very nice, with some compliments on local Facebook saying how nice it is looking.

Regular headstone checks are taking place every month to ensure health and safety is adhered too.

Weather permitting fence treatment will continue and the gates are to be refurbished now that they have been repaired.