2.	Devon and Cornwall Police Update – Inspector Rupert Engley <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The latest crime figures for the sector were summarised. Please see attached. • There has been an overall 7.5% reduction in recorded crime. • There has been a significant reduction in alcohol and public order related offences particularly over the Christmas and New Year period. However, this is likely to change when the lockdown restrictions are lifted. • There were 312 reports of Covid breaches, of which 230 related to travel or second homes. All reports were investigated and the majority of cases resolved through communication and engagement. • The sector now has 10 new response officers since the uplift last March with 4 more expected this year. A dedicated Neighbourhood Beat Manager (NBM) has been appointed for Saltash and is due to start w/c 16 February. • There is currently a 12% average of staff absence due to officers having to isolate or through illness. Questions and Answers Q. Yes, some officers have been vaccinated in line with the eligibility criteria. Q. I am concerned at the number of recorded rape crimes. Are the police taking action on this? Is there anything parish councils can do? Are the number of reports higher than other areas? Is there a Crisis Centre locally? A. The majority of reports are domestic or historic. Dealing with Domestic Abuse remains a top priority for the force. The number of reports is comparable to other sectors. There is a Crisis Centre locally. Q. Can you clarify what future support there will be for the Landrake Speedwatch Scheme following the recent retirement of our PCSOs? A. Speedwatch Schemes are currently suspended in line with Covid restrictions. However, they will continue to operate as normal when permitted and will be managed by new officers to be advised. Q. Can you clarify the area the new NBM will cover? A. Please see attached response from Inspector Engley.

Will there be a media campaign specifically aimed at how people can identify as Cornish through the text box? Will the costs of this be met by the ONS? A. Cornwall Council will be doing its own PR campaign to highlight this. The ONS will not cover this cost. HC will also promote through local media. Q. Can you clarify how the text box will be shown? A. The text box will be available under the 'Identity' section. Briefing note

A38 Progress Update

05 February 2021

The A38 is a key transport corridor linking Cornwall to Plymouth, Devon and the rest of the country via the wider strategic road network. This corridor is vital to the connectivity of businesses and people in Cornwall. Cornwall Council (CC) are working collaboratively with Highways England (HE) to campaign for major investment to be secured to deliver improvements that support economic growth in terms of reliability and resilience and funding in the shorter term to address safety issues. The follow provides an update on the three areas of work currently progressing.

A38 Trerulefoot to Carkeel Safety Package Project

The Road Investment Strategy 2 (RIS): 2020-2025 published details identifying the A38 Trerulefoot to Carkeel Safety Package Project as a RIS 3 pipeline project. The RIS3 Pipeline, is a programme of 32 schemes that Government have asked HE to develop options for between 2020-2025. Not all of the 32 projects will be built but the work HE is doing now will help Government decide which schemes might be funded for delivery from 2025 onwards.

Funding has been secured in this current 5 year period to undertake a strategic study of the A38 between Trerulefoot to Carkeel and the project team is currently developing a long list of possible solutions and will be engaging with stakeholders locally about any concerns they have in relation to this stretch of road. By the end of 2021, this will be narrowed down to create a shortlist of realistic, achievable highway improvements that could be delivered within Government available funding.

Next year HE will look to carry out an options consultation locally, so that people can have their say on which option should be put forward to Government for consideration. Information will be made available nearer the time on www.highwaysengland.co.uk

Key Project Milestones

- Project awarded to Highways England Framework consultancy team Capita Pell Frischmann JV, in Autumn 2020.
- The project is currently in Stage 1 (Options Identification). It is anticipated that this stage will finish in winter 2021/22. This stage will ensure that the project delivers value for money, in accordance with the established Project Control Framework (PCF) process.

- Completion of PCF Stage 2 (Option Selection) is anticipated for late summer 2022, at which point the project will be referred back to the Department for Transport (DfT) for decision-making.
- None of the pipeline projects, including this one, are committed for delivery at this stage. It will be for DfT to decide whether the project can continue beyond the options selection stage.
- Once committed for delivery, the project would advance through the 'Development' and 'Construction' stages.

If you require any further information regarding this scheme the team can be contacted directly via email A38TCSafetyPackage@highwaysengland.co.uk

A38 Menheniot to Lean Quarry Junctions

DfT has instructed HE to carry out a preliminary study to better understand the issues on the Menheniot and Lean Quarry junctions on the A38. The study will be carried out separately from the A38 Trerulefoot to Carkeel RIS3 Pipeline scheme as this is the most efficient way to carry out this work without delaying the work on the pipeline scheme.

The preliminary study will help HE establish a clearer understanding of the need for a scheme, as well as its likely costs and benefits, and provide a clear case to Government for its decision making. HE is committed to keeping people informed and will be providing regular updates on progress.

A38 Route Safety Improvement Measures Feasibility Study

CC on behalf of HE commissioned framework consultants Aecom to review potential quick win road safety focused improvements. This project forms the Feasibility Stage of HE's project progression; funding to carry out detailed design and delivery has yet to be secured. This study has reviewed the following areas:

- Whole Route – median hatching, road markings, '2+1' climbing lanes and village gateway enhancements.
- Carminow Roundabout, Bodmin, to Twelvewoods Roundabout – chevron signage, carriageway edging marker posts, road markings and surfaces at bends, existing lane destination markings, signage at roundabouts and cycle route signage to Bodmin.
- Catchfrench Junction, Trerulefoot to Landrake Village - Tideford village improvements, Kilna Lane and St Erney junctions, chevron signage, road markings and edging marker posts.

All drawings produced are currently in the final stages of review with HE and once all modifications are complete and approved, work to finalise the report will be advanced. The report is expected to be complete by Spring 2021.

Your questions answered

What is the Census?

The census is a survey that happens every 10 years and gives us a picture of all the people and households in England and Wales. All kinds of organisations, from local authorities to charities, use the information to help provide the services we all need, including transport, education and healthcare. Without the census, it would be much more difficult to do this.

When should I fill in my census questionnaire?

Census Day is Sunday 21 March – but you can fill yours in as soon as you get your access code in the post. Your answers should be about the people who usually live in your household on this date – even if you’re filling it in before then. If you need help, visit www.census.gov.uk

Do I have to take part?

If you live in England and Wales, you must take part in the census - it's a legal requirement. Census information helps inform how billions of pounds of public funding is spent. By taking around 10 minutes per person to fill in the census questionnaire, you will help make sure your community gets the services needed now and in the future.

Will the government use the information I provide to identify me?

No. The Office for National Statistics (ONS), which is an independent public body, carries out the census in England and Wales. It only ever publishes anonymous information from the census. In fact, it's a crime to share personal census information and everything you say is protected.

How will the census make a difference to me?

The census makes a difference to everyone. It's a once-in-a-decade chance to have your voice heard and help inform the future of your local area.

What if I do not identify with the census options?

The census asks you about your ethnicity, gender and sexual orientation, religion and national identity. It's up to you to decide how you would like to answer each question. Some questions allow for a free text response rather than having to use predefined categories. Do it in the way that you feel best represents you.

Could information I share affect my benefits or immigration status?

No. The information you share in the census cannot be used to influence benefit claims, a residency application, immigration status or your taxes. Officials dealing with payments or services you receive cannot see your census information.

What if I cannot fill in my census questionnaire online?

The ONS can help with a wide range of support services to make it as easy as possible for you, whatever your needs. Services include:

- guidance and support in many languages and formats
- help over the phone, in a web chat or on social media
- a paper version of the questionnaire, if you prefer
- accessible census guidance, for example in braille

In addition, there will be a Swindon based Census Support Centre to provide help with online completion. The contact details for this will be available very shortly.

Where can I get this information?

Everyone will receive a postcard followed by a letter with their digital access code which will contain both the website address and phone number for census support.

What other local support is available?

If you run a local community group or organisation and would like more information for your website or newsletter or if you are holding any online events or meetings and would like to receive a presentation or the opportunity to ask questions, you can also contact the ONS Census Engagement Manager for Cornwall, Heidi Clemo, at heidi.clemo98@field.census.gov.uk or on 07452 948322.

Why is the census asking me about my gender and sexual orientation?

This census asks voluntary questions about sexual orientation and gender identity for the first time. This is to give us more accurate information on lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender populations. This will help organisations combat any inequalities these groups face and show where services are needed. The census will only ask people aged 16 years and over these questions. If you do not feel comfortable identifying on the same form as the rest of your household, you can request an individual census questionnaire and answer separately.

Can I help friends and family fill in the census?

Yes. If a friend or family member needs support, help them if you can. Always fill in your own census first. You can also ask for help for yourself, or for someone else.

Is it safe for the census to go ahead at present?

Yes. The ONS has planned and built a flexible operation which can adapt to the changing circumstances of the pandemic. It will continue to review and adapt these plans to ensure census staff and the public can be kept safe and everyone can be safely counted. It is important to note that the ONS hopes that about 75% of the population will complete the census online without the need for any additional support.

Census 2021 will also be crucial to our understanding of how the people of England and Wales have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and it will give us detailed information on the health, social and economic impacts on all of us. It is essential we understand the needs of different groups and communities and the challenges people are facing in order to inform future decisions and policy making.

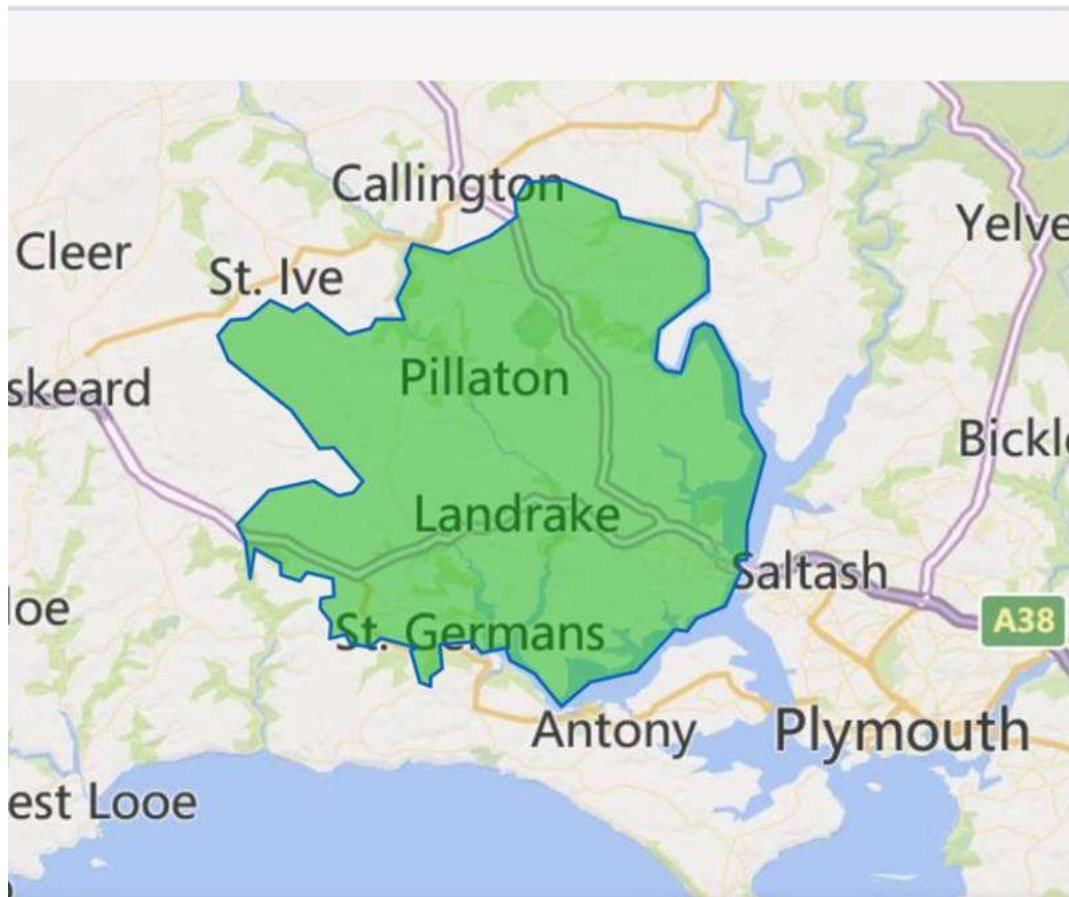

Where can I get more information?

- Your local Census Engagement Manager, Heidi Clemo can provide you with talks, presentations, posters, leaflets in many languages and social media content. Contact Heidi via heidi.clemo98@field.census.gov.uk or call 07452 948322.
- Downloadable resources are available at www.census.gov.uk/downloadable-resources
- There are still jobs available at the Census www.censusjobs.co.uk
