

Email Received from Resident

Dear Councillors

Thank you for acknowledging the climate and ecological emergency. We are all incredibly aware that the situation the world is in now is almost certainly the most dangerous emergency that all life on earth has faced since the evolution of Homo sapiens.

I and everyone I have talked to in Saltash are delighted you have now voted to acknowledge this and will put it at the forefront in all your decision making in the future.