

SALTASH LIBRARY HUB

NEWSLETTER

MARCH 2021

OPENING SOON!

You may have heard that Libraries will be open again for limited browsing on April 12th. Up until then we will continue to open 5 days a week (including Saturday) for click and collect. Opening times are 11am – 2pm.

We would remind you to follow Government guidelines and plan your visit carefully and not unnecessarily leave your house. We also have a fantastic digital online service for downloading ebooks and audiobooks on Borrowbox.

OUR NEW MONTHLY
CAMPAIGN ON GREAT
BRITISH AUTHORS
STARTS THIS MONTH

You have the chance to talk to one of the UK's fore-most crime writers on April 7th at 7PM.

Anthony J Quinn will read from his new thriller TURNCOAT followed by Questions & Answers.

If you would like to take part email saltash.library@liscornwall.org.uk or ring 01752 844846 (OPTION 6) to book a place.

WORD QUIZ OF THE MONTH

Here's March's brain teasers to win a ten-pound book token to be spent at the BOOKSHELF in Fore street after lockdown

1. Which word meaning 'adroit' stems from the Latin word for 'right hand'?
2. What is unusual about the 50,000 word book entitled 'Gadsby' written by Ernest Vincent Wright in 1939?
3. Name five of the top 25 most frequently misspelled words on Google.
4. The English word 'GAMBRINOUS' means full of what?
5. Which medical emergency term stems from the French verb meaning 'to separate'?
6. The Italian word for 'scratched drawings' is used commonly in English. What is it?
7. What fruit can go in the middle of the word 'aped' to make a new word?
8. What language does the word 'Shampoo' originate?
9. A capital city, the name of a movie starring Charlton Heston and the name of Jack Woltz's horse in the film 'The Godfather'? Eight letters
10. A Chinese word meaning body energy waves?

March's answers to be received no later than Tuesday March 30th
