

SALTASH LIBRARY HUB

NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 2021

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The great headline news is that Saltash Library is continuing to open 5 days a week (including Saturday) for click and collect during these uncertain times. Opening times are 11am – 2pm. We would remind you to follow Government guidelines and plan your visit carefully and not unnecessarily leave your house. We also have a fantastic digital online service for downloading books. Visit the Cornwall Council website for details. <https://www.cornwall.gov.uk>

We are delighted to report we have had 1,486 active library card users during the pandemic year. The written word is clearly so important to the well-being of so many people here in Saltash.

Our first new WORD QUIZ OF THE MONTH, in partnership with the BOOKSHELF in Fore Street, is setting you the first challenge to win a ten-pound book token.

Answer ten tricky cunningly crafted questions and the prize could be yours.

1. What is black and white and read all over?
2. In Japan, what is a gaijin? A) A bicycle b) A building c) A foreigner d) A mountain
3. What is the borrowed German word meaning 'Spirit of the times'?
4. What is unusual about the word 'Subcontinental'? (One of 4 of its kind).

5. Which words, with the exception of 'hungry' and 'angry' end with the letters 'gry'?
6. What is the ancient Persian word for nation or land? A) Sid b) Stan c) Dan d) John
7. Which misused word means 10% destroyed?
8. What is so unusual about the word 'Rotavator'?
