

Saltash Town Council Press Release

Tackling weeds in Saltash

Saltash Town Council agreed that herbicides will not be used to tackle weeding issues in the town.

Any weeding issues that are a health and safety concern are to be reported to Cornwall Council for further action.

Saltash Town Council will not carry out weed control within the town but where significant issues are reported the Service Delivery Department will use mechanical methods to remove the weeds, subject to the departments availability.

End of press release