Where to send completed forms:

Please return your completed Event Notification Form along with supporting documents as identified above to: eventplanning@cornwall.gov.uk. If you are unable to send by email, please post to Event Planning, Unit 6, Threemilestone Industrial Estate, Truro TR4 9LD.

Please ensure that you advise the Event Planning Team if you make any alterations or additions to your event once you have submitted your Event Notification Form.

What happens next?

Once received by the Event Planning Team the information will be processed and circulated to the relevant services identified from the information provided within the form. Individual services will then directly liaise with organisers regarding any permissions, queries or additional requirements.

Additionally, if you are planning a large-scale event, it is likely that your plans will also be referred to members of the Local Safety Advisory Group (LSAG) for their consideration. If this does occur you will be advised by the Event Planning Team in the first instance, the LSAG will then liaise with organisers directly.

18. Privacy Note

Who will control my data?

The Data Controller for all the information you provide on this form, together with any supporting information or documents requested as part of the application process, is Cornwall Council, County Hall, Treyew Road, Truro, TR1 3AY.

How we will use the information about you?

The information in this form will be used for notifying Council services and relevant external agencies of your event and will remain secure. Information will be used to help plan for the event to run smoothly with the appropriate requirements in place and will not be shared with any other organisation that is not involved in the event notification process. Under Freedom of Information legislation however, the Council may get asked for copies of this event notification form which we must consider if appropriate for release. However, no personal data, including 3rd party personal data will be released without permission, or any other information that may be subject to a relevant exemption under the Freedom of information Act (FOIA) or the Environmental Information Regulations (EIRs).

The information provided on this form will be processed for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of the official authority of the Council with a view to ensuring the safe running of events in Cornwall.

Safeguards.

Your data will be held within Cornwall Council's secure network and premises and will not be processed outside of the UK, the EEA. Access to your information will only be made to authorised members of staff who are required to process it for the purposes outlined in this privacy notice.

How long will we keep this information for?

Your information will be kept for 6 years from the date you last accessed the service.

What are my data rights?

Your personal information belongs to you and you have the right to:

- be informed of how we will process it
- request a copy of what we hold about you and in commonly used electronic format if you wish (if you provided this to us electronically for automated processing, we will return it in the same way)
- have it amended if it's incorrect or incomplete
- have it deleted (where we do not have a legal requirement to retain it)
- withdraw your consent if you no longer wish us to process in relation to marketing
- restrict how we process it
- object to us using it for marketing or research purposes
- object to us using it in relation to a legal task or in the exercise of an official authority

How do I exercise these rights?
