

Saltash Town Council has a current Councillor vacancy for Trematon ward. A vacancy was advertised but an election was not called therefore this vacancy will be filled by an interview process called co-option.

No formal qualifications are required to become a Town Councillor. Councillors are from all walks of life with various professional and personal backgrounds.

You do need passion for Saltash and its residents. Be able to commit to attending regular evening meetings, have discussions with the public and fellow Councillors and make decisions that affect the town.

The Town Council's aim is to make the town a safe, happy and rewarding place to live and work and you will be directly involved in helping to shape the future of Saltash.

Being a Town Councillor is a very varied and at times demanding role, but it is very rewarding!

If you are interested in the voluntary role you can apply by reading the documents and completing the application form on our website www.saltash.gov.uk. Alternatively you can contact us for a copy on 01752 844846 or humanresources@saltash.gov.uk

The completed application form has to be received by email or post no later than midnight on Friday 18 January 2022.
